VOLUME XIV INDEX

NO. 1, FALL, 1990	1–120
NO. 2, WINTER 1990	121–226
NO. 3, SPRING 1991	227–326
NO. 4, SUMMER 1991	327–436

A

Accountability: human resources management, 281; and performance appraisal, 282; and privatization, 138-139, 192

Action research, 5

Administration. See Public administration

Administrative science, 47–48, 57–58

Administrators: health care, 203–209; public function, 194–195. See also Leadership; Managers; Public administration

Allen, D., "Management Development Training and Learning Styles," 415–428

American Public Works Association (APWA), 8–10

Ammons, D. N., "Performance Appraisal in Local Government: Warranty Conditions," 253–266

"Assessing Training Needs of Executives Using the Delphi Technique," 297–301

B

Balfour, D. L., "Commitment, Performance, and Productivity in Public Organizations," 355–367

Barnekov, T. K., "Public Management of Privatization," 135–152

Behavior. See Organizational behavior

Behavioral expectation scale (BES), 270

Behavioral observation scale (BOS), 270, 275, 276–277

Behaviorally anchored rating scales (BARS), 259, 268

Behaviorally based rating scales, 259, 268, 270–271

Black, A., "Improving Organizational Productivity: Add Ethics," 121–133

Books: "Health Care Policy: Access, Allocation, and Rationing," 221–226; "Leaders and Giants," 429–436; "Productivity and Excellence," 115–120; "Responding to Uncertainty," 321–325

Bouckaert, G., "The History of the Productivity Movement," 53–89; "Public Productivity as a Classical Movement," 33–34

Boxx, W. R., "Organizational Cultures, Commitment, Satisfaction, and Cohesion," 157–169

Brand, R., "Total Quality Management in the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency," 99–114

Budgetary incentives, 240–241

Budgetary management: and incentives, 240–241; inefficiency, 237–239; and politics, 239; systems, 239; See also Budgeting; Expenditure control budgeting (ECB)

Budgeting: and incentives, 240–241; local government (study), 172–184; and performance measurement, 310–311; public sector, 29–30; reform, 245–246. See also Expenditure control budgeting (ECB); Forecasting

Burke, F., "Improving Organizational Productivity: Add Ethics," 121–133

Burke/Black Productivity/Ethics Pretest Survey, 126–130

Bus transit services, privatizing, 142–143

C

Capper, S. A., "Excellence in Public Administration: Four Transferable Lessons from the Private Sector," 227–236

Change: fear of, 29; management, 2; and manager adaptability, 321–322

Clients, 102–103, 234

Cohen, S., "Total Quality Management in the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency," 99–114

Colorado corrections services (privatization example), 195–200

Commentary: "Improving Organizational Productivity: Add Ethics," 121–133; "Managing Tomorrow's Cities," 1–6

Commitment: antecedents, 356; compliance, 357, 363–364; defined, 356;

Commitment (continued)
and desire to remain, 365; and extra-role behaviors, 365; identification, 364; and in-role behaviors, 365-366; internalization, 364-365; Organizational Commitment Questionnaire studies, 356-357; and productivity, 366; and psychological attachment, 357; public sector (study), 357-363; public vs. private employees, 355-356; research, 356-357
"Commitment, Performance, and Productivity in Public Organizations," 355-367
Competing values framework (CVF), 93
Compliance commitment, 357, 363-364
Computer programs: data-base management, 336; expert, 336; and workgroups, 329-330
Computers: distributed systems, 212-213; and health care, 224; health risks, 341-343; networks, 95, 328-329; New York City departmental applications, 211-219; and productivity, 212-213, 219, 331, 339-340; and security, 338-341; viruses, 339; workgroups, 328. See also Computer programs; Information technology
Condrey, S. E., "Performance Appraisal in Local Government: Warranty Conditions," 253-266
Continuous quality improvement: defined, 100; goal, 104; and public sector, 103-104; steps, 101; and U.S. Office of Underground Storage Tanks, 104-113. See also Quality
Corrections facilities: Colorado (privatization example), 195-200; computerization, 218; and constitutional rights, 194, 198; ethical concerns, 192, 200; and liability, 198; privatization, 189, 191-192, 199; and profit maximization, 192-193, 197; and rehabilitation/retribution, 197
Coursey, D., "Organizational Behavior and Processes in the Public Sector," 351-353
Creaming (skimming), 192
"Creating Creativity in New York State Government," 91-97
Creativity: componential model, 92-93; and computer networking, 95; defined, 92; and leadership behavior, 93-96; and social psychology, 91-92
Culture. See Organizational culture
Cunningham, R., "Responding to Uncertainty," 321-325
Curtis, C., "The Development of Behavior-Based Performance Appraisal Processes in Smaller Local Governments: Lessons from a Case Study," 267-279

D

Daley, D., "Performance Appraisal in Local Governments," 249-252
Data envelopment analysis (DEA), 70
Data processing. See Computers
"Decision Process Models and Organizational Context: Level and Sector Make a Difference," 397-413
Decision making: behavioral, 398; and bureaucracy, 408-409; and decision type, 400; mid-level, 407-408; and organizational context (study), 401-412; and organizational level, 400-401; public vs. private organizational, 399-400; top managers', 403-407. See also Strategic decision process models
Delphi technique, 298-301
Deming management method, 100-102, 105-106, 430
Dershem, H. A., "The Development of Behavior-Based Performance Appraisal Processes in Smaller Local Governments: Lessons from a Case Study," 267-279
"Development of Behavior-Based Performance Appraisal Processes in Smaller Local Governments: Lessons from a Case Study, The" 267-279
Differently abled employees. See Employees: special needs
Duncan, W. J., "Excellence in Public Administration: Four Transferable Lessons from the Private Sector," 227-236
Dunn, M. G., "Organizational Cultures, Commitment, Satisfaction, and Cohesion," 157-169

E

Economic efficiency: and American progressivism, 41-42; and credit policy,

41; defined, 36; and Keynesian economics, 42; and productivity, 40-42
Economic loss function, 181-184
Economy: and efficiency/effectiveness, 122-124; and privatization, 137, 190
Education: health care administration, 204-209; and privatization, 145-146
Education and Training: "Assessing Training Needs of Executives Using the Delphi Technique," 297-301; "Creating Creativity in New York State Government," 91-97; "Health Administration Education: A Challenge for the 1990s," 203-210; "Management Development Training and Learning Styles," 415-428
Effectiveness. See Efficiency
Efficiency: and continuous quality improvement, 100-101; corrections facilities, 200; defined, 55; economic, 36, 40-42; and effectiveness, 36, 63, 76, 77-78; government emphasis, 54-57; vs. inefficiency, 54, 119; managerial, 36, 42-49; and municipal management, 72-73; organizational, 233; and privatization, 137-138, 190-191, 193, 197; private sector, 191; and productivity, 36, 40-49. See also Economic efficiency; Managerial efficiency; Three E's (traditional)
Empathy, research, 124
Employees: commitment, 351, 355; feedback, 292; health/safety, 340-343; job satisfaction, 385; job security, 373; monetary reward, 371-372, 381; organizational character, 351-352; pay for performance, 255; performance analysis dimensions, 281-283; performance appraisal, 286; performance monitoring, 336; positive reinforcement, 232; psychological attachment, 357; public service, 371-373, 381; public vs. private, 369-375; rewards, 373-374; risk taking, 233; satisfaction, 275; special needs, 333-335; stress, 269, 347-348; team spirit, 329; workgroups/work groups, 328-330; wrongful discharge, 288-289
Engineered work measures and standards (EWS), 82, 83
Environmental forecasting, 5
Environmental Information System (Conn.), 330-331
Environmental management, 4-5
Epstein, P., "Productivity Forum for Computer Technology," 211-219
Ethics: and admirable organizational qualities, 130-131; barriers, 123; and correctional facilities, 192; and evaluation/empathy, 124; interest, 122-123; and productivity improvement, 125-130; and short-term goal achievement, 123-124; workplace, 125-126
Evaluation: and empathy, 124; as management strategy, 124; and Nagel's Three E's, 198; trait-based vs. goal-oriented, 267-268. See also Performance appraisal; Self-assessment
Excellence: and client responsiveness, 234; defined, 229; and innovation, 233; and leadership, 231-232; organizational examples, 230
"Excellence in Public Administration: Four Transferable Lessons from the Private Sector," 227-236
Executive information systems (EIS's), 335
Expenditure control budgeting (ECB): and budget reform, 245-246; defined, 237-238, 241-242; effects, 243-245; and efficiency/effectiveness, 243; premises, 242-243; problems, 243-244; and productivity, 246. See also Budgeting

F

Falcone, S., "Self-Assessments and Job Satisfaction in Public and Private Organizations," 385-396
Featured Topic: "Commitment, Performance, and Productivity in Public Organizations," 355-367; "Decision Process Models and Organizational Context: Level and Sector Make a Difference," 397-413; "The Development of Behavior-Based Performance Appraisal Processes in Smaller Local Governments: Lessons from a Case Study," 267-279; "The Management Classics and Public Productivity," 35-52; "Managing Organizational Resources," 153-155; "Organizational Behavior and Processes in the Public Sector," 351-353; "Organizational Cultures, Commitment, Satisfaction, and Cohesion," 157-169;

Featured Topic (continued)
"Performance Appraisal in Local Government: A Current Update," 281–296; "Performance Appraisal in Local Government: Warranty Conditions," 253–266; "Performance Appraisal in Local Governments," 249–252; "Privatization of Prisons: Management, Productivity, and Governance Concerns," 189–201; "Public Productivity as a Classical Movement," 33–34; "Raising the Bridge Using Time Series Forecasting Models," 171–188; "Self-Assessments and Job Satisfaction in Public and Private Organizations," 385–396; "Serving the People or Serving for Pay: Reward Preferences Among Government, Hybrid Sector, and Business Managers," 369–383
Felbinger, C. L., "Impediments to Effective Management in Local Bureaucracies: The Perceptions of Public Works Directors," 7–17
Ford Motor company, 121
Forecasting: accuracy improvement, 179–184; and economic loss function, 181–184; environmental, 5; and holdout technique, 176–177; and local government revenues, 171–174; methods/results, 176–179; research, 179–181, 184–186; time series, 177, 184. See also Budgeting
Frank, H. A., "Raising the Bridge Using Time Series Forecasting Models," 171–188
Free disposal hull (FDH), 70
Fuller, M. W., "Leaders and Giants," 429–436

G

General Service Administration (GSA), 346
Georgia Department of Corrections (study), 416–422
Gianakis, G. A., "Managing Organizational Resources," 153–155; "Raising the Bridge Using Time Series Forecasting Models," 171–188
Ginter, P. M., "Excellence in Public Administration: Four Transferable Lessons from the Private Sector," 227–236
Glaser, M., "Tailoring Performance Measurement to Fit the Organization: From Generic to Germane," 303–319
Good management: defined, 229; and performance appraisal, 249; and vision, 230–231. See also Management; Management excellence
Government: by administators, 57–59; and contract theory, 37; by efficiency, 54–57; and information technology, 327; by managers, 59–64; municipal, 74–75, 80; origins, 35; power base, 332; by private sector, 64–67. See also Local government; Municipal government; Public sector

H

Halachmi, A., "Productivity and Information Technology: Emerging Issues and Considerations," 327–350
Hawthorne Effect, 140
"Health Administration Education: A Challenge for the 1990s," 203–210
Health and safety. See Employees: health/safety
Health care: access, 221–222, 226; change options, 222; and discrimination, 225; financing, 222; and Medicare reform, 222–223, 226; national programs, 226; public health model, 224; rationing, 223–225; reforms, 225–226; rights, 225; and technology, 222, 223
Health care administration: challenges, 204, 209; complexity, 203; education, 204–205; Medical University of South Carolina (example), 205–209. See also Public administration; Public health
"Health Care Policy: Access, Allocation, and Rationing," 221–226
Heinzen, T. E., "Creating Creativity in New York State Government," 91–97
Herzik, E. B., "Improving Budgetary Management and Fostering Innovation: Expenditure Control Budgeting," 237–248
"History of the Productivity Movement, The," 53–89
Holdout technique, 176–177
Human resource development (HRD), 264
Human services, privatization, 143–145
Hybrid organizations, 370, 372, 394

I

Identification commitment, 364
"Impediments to Effective Management in Local Bureaucracies: The Perceptions of Public Works Directors," 7–17
"Improving Budgetary Management and Fostering Innovation: Expenditure Control Budgeting," 237–248
"Improving Organizational Productivity: Add Ethics," 121–133
Information rangers: definition and duties, 343–344; General Service Administration example, 346; and information resources managers, 345–346; and information technology challenges, 338; networks, 346; and planning coordination, 346; and protection of federal data bases, 345; relations with management/employees, 344
Information resources managers, 345–346
Information technology: and banking, 335; dysfunctional aspects, 332–333; and employee safety, 340; and employee training, 332–333; and employer liability, 340–341; and government decentralization, 332; and government operations, 327; and information rangers, 343–346; and management control/coordination, 335–338; and micro management, 327, 336; and productivity, 346–349; and redefining organizations, 329; and security, 338–341; and special needs employees, 333–335; and technostress, 347–348; and U.S. Postal Service, 335; and workgroups, 327–332. See also Computer programs; Computers
Innovation, 233
Institute of Government Research (OGR), 55, 57
Internalization commitment, 364–365
International City Management Association (ICMA), 57, 59, 62, 63

J

Job satisfaction, 159, (study) 388–394
Johnson, J. A., "Health Administration Education: A Challenge for the 1990s," 203–210
Johnston, V. R., "Privatization of Prisons: Management, Productivity, and Governance Concerns," 189–201
Jones, W. J., "Health Administration Education: A Challenge for the 1990s," 203–210
Joseph, A., "Assessing Training Needs of Executives Using the Delphi Technique," 297–301
Just-in-time assessment, 118

K

Kingsley, G. A., "Decision Process Models and Organizational Context: Level and Sector Make a Difference," 397–413
Kiracofe, J. H., "Managing Tomorrow's Cities," 1–6

L

Lacho, K. J., "Performance Appraisal in Local Government: A Current Update," 281–296
Layne, B. H., "Management Development Training and Learning Styles," 415–428
"Leaders and Giants," 429–436
Leadership: behavior models, 93–96; and competing values framework, 93; creative, 93–94; deterioration, 431–433; and empowerment, 430; and entrepreneurialism, 433–434; and excellence, 231–232; and managers, 430; and modern heroes, 431; problems, 430; Reagan's, 430–431; trends, 429; U.S. Office of Underground Storage Tanks, 110–111; and vision, 2. See also Administrators; Managers
Learning: domains, 422–423; environments and learner abilities, 423–426; style inventory, 417–418, 422, 427
Learning-style inventory (LSI), 417–418, 422, 427
Leidner, A., "Productivity Forum for Computer Technology," 211–219
Lessons from the Field: "Productivity Forum for Computer Technology," 211–219; "Tailoring Performance Measurement to Fit the Organization: From Generic to Germane," 303–319; "Total Quality Management in the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency," 99–114
Local area networks (LAN), 340

Local government: fiscal cutbacks, 281–282; performance appraisal (case example), 271–274; performance appraisal options, 275–276; and performance appraisal problems, 256–258; performance appraisal studies, 283–286; performance measurement (study), 303–310; rhetoric and exaggeration, 253–254; and trait-based performance appraisal, 274–275. See also Municipal government

Lovrich, N. P., Jr., "The Development of Behavior-Based Performance Appraisal Processes in Smaller Local Governments: Lessons from a Case Study," 267–279

M

Macroeconomics, 43, 68–69

Management: art, 324–325; Deming method, 100–102, 105–106; diseases, 23–24; and employability, 435; and ethics, 126; and evaluation, 124; high-performance, 325; ineffective, 99–100; and information technology, 335–338; micro, 327, 336; new techniques, 186; obsolete, 434; and outside world, 102; participatory, 22; problems, 1; and quality, 100; and service ethic, 381; Theory X hierarchical, 28; white water metaphor, 297, 324. See also Budgetary management; Change management; Environmental mangement; Good management; Management by objectives (MBO); Participatory management; Scientific management; Situational management; Time management; Total quality management (TQM)

Management by objectives (MBO): and local government form, 284–285, 291; managers, 293; and performance appraisal, 269; problems, 276; and public sector, 269–270, 275

"Management Classics and Public Productivity, The," 35–52

Management development training, learning styles (study), 416–422

"Management Development Training and Learning Styles," 415–428

Management excellence, 229

Managerial efficiency: administrative perspective, 47–49; defined, 36; economic perspective, 42–45; engineer's perspective, 45–47

Managers: adaptability, 321–322; age, 387–388; change, 1–2; decision making (study), 401–412; education level, 387–388; effectiveness, 7–8; external world, 323; information resources, 345–346; and information technology, 337–339; internal world, 324; job satisfaction, 385–388; vs. leaders, 430; peak performance, 322; performance appraisal, 293; and positive reinforcement, 232; post-entrepreneurial, 433–435; and public opinion, 4; public/private/hybrid, 369–373, 380–381, 394–395, 403–409; and resource management, 186; reward preference (study), 375–380; sense of impact, 386–387; strategic management, 322–324; and total quality management, 27–30; training, 297–301; transportation service, 166–168. See also Administrators; Leadership; Public service managers; Public works directors

"Managing Organizational Resources," 153–155

"Managing Tomorrow's Cities," 1–6

Martin, D., "The Management Classics and Public Productivity," 35–52

Medical University of South Carolina (MUSC) health care administration program, 205–209

Merit pay systems, 249–250, 275, 286

Micro-/minicomputers. See Computers

Microcomputer—Minicomputer Coordinating Council (M2C2), 211–219

Microeconomics, 43–45, 69–72

Micromanagement, 327, 336

Milakovich, M. E., "Total Quality Management for Public Sector Productivity Improvement," 19–32

Mixed standard rating scales, 259

Municipal government: budgetary forecasting (study), 172–184; and creativity, 91–96; management efficiency, 72–73; output, 80; productivity measures, 74–75; revenues, 184, 186. See also Local government

N

Nassau County Multi-Municipal Productivity Program, 62–63

National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA), 66
National Center for Public Productivity, 61, 64
National Commission on Productivity, 54, 60
New York City departmental computer applications (example), 211-219
Nonzero hypothesis, 68-69

O

OASIS (Phoenix, Ariz.), 331
Odom, R. Y., "Organizational Cultures, Commitment, Satisfaction, and Cohesion," 157-169
Olshfski, D., "Assessing Training Needs of Executives Using the Delphi Technique," 297-301
Organization theory, 71-72
Organizational behavior: generic approach, 351; and organizational commitment, 351, 355-357
"Organizational Behavior and Processes in the Public Sector," 351-353
Organizational Commitment Questionnaire (OCQ), 356-357
Organizational culture: bureaucratic, 161, 168; and commitment/satisfaction/cohesion, 159-160, 163-166; defined, 157-159; dimensions, 158-159; and ethics, 125-126; innovative, 163, 168; and resistance, 313-315; study, 160-168; supportive, 163, 168
"Organizational Cultures, Commitment, Satisfaction, and Cohesion," 157-169
Organizations: closed-system approach, 71, 79; context, 398-401; creativity, 95; decision making, 398-399; and honesty, 130; humanistic model, 71; hybrid, 370, 372, 394; mechanistic model, 71; necessary elements, 230; open system concept, 71-72; redefining, 329; systems analysis, 3

P

Participatory management, 22
Pay-for-performance systems, 249-250, 253
Performance: assessing, 28; and future planning, 309-310; and organizational structure, 315; and targets/goal setting, 305-307; types, 77. See also Performance appraisal; Performance management
Performance appraisal: behaviorally based, 268, 276; case example, 271-274; case studies, 285-286; documentation, 289; and due process, 289; and employee feedback, 292; and employee stress, 269; fiscal dimensions, 281-282; function variety, 276; and good management, 249; and government accountability, 282; legal issues, 255, 286-290, 293; and local government, 250-251, 271-277, 281-286, 290-293; and management by objectives, 269; management dimension, 281; managers, 293; and merit pay systems, 249-250; practice implications, 292-293; and pragmatism, 263; and preintervention survey, 275; President's Council on Management Improvement study, 281; problems, 259; and productivity improvement, 291, 292-293; and public opinion, 282-283; research implications, 290-292; and risk management, 277; vs. selection tests, 290; successful, 276; surveys, 283-285; and total quality management, 250; unfulfilled expectations, 255-258; warranty conditions, 260-263; and work force reduction, 290; written/subjective, 289-290; and wrongful discharge, 288-289. See also Evaluation; Performance; Performance measurement; Self-assessment
"Performance Appraisal in Local Government: A Current Update," 281-296
"Performance Appraisal in Local Government: Warranty Conditions," 253-266
"Performance Appraisal in Local Governments," 249-252
Performance management systems, 281
Performance measurement: and budgeting, 310-311; critical issues, 316; and decision making, 316-317; inflexible design, 311-313; local government (study), 303-310; nature, 316; resistance, 313-316; and strategic planning, 309-310; and targets/goal setting, 305-307; and triangulation, 304-305. See also Performance; Performance appraisal

Planning programming budgeting system (PPBS), 45, 53, 58
President's Commission on Privatization, 191
President's Council on Management Improvement (PCMI), 281
President's Private Sector Survey (PPSS) (Grace Commission), 282
Prisons. See Corrections facilities
Private sector: efficiency, 191; vs. public sector, 193, 332, 369; risk taking, 233. See also Privatization
Privatization: and accountability, 138–139, 192; arguments for/against, 137–139, 189–191; bus transit services, 142–143; and competition, 138; corrections facilities, 189, 191, 195–200; costs, 149; and creaming, 192; defined, 136–137, 194; and economy/efficiency, 137–138, 190–191, 193, 197; education, 145–146; evaluation criteria, 146–149; feasibility, 148; human services, 143–145; ideological basis, 190; objectives, 136; potential, 147–148; practical reasons, 190; and productivity improvement, 147–149; provision/production concept, 194; and Reagan administration, 143; research design, 139–141; research review, 141–146; and sector blurring, 190, 193, 195, 198; solid waste collection services, 142; and sovereignty issues, 193–194; and Three P's, 198
"Privatization of Prisons: Management, Productivity, and Governance Concerns," 189–201
Production function, 70
Productivity: administrative perspective, 47–49; and commitment, 366; and computer technology, 211–219; conceptual approaches, 119–120; and creativity, 94, 96; and economic efficiency, 40–42; economic perspective, 42–45; and efficiency, 36, 40–49; history, 35–36; mercantilistic concept, 40–42, 43; municipal government, 74–75, 80; nonzero hypothesis, 68–69; and organization theory, 71–72; output-oriented approach, 78–83; and pay for performance, 255; and performance appraisal, 291, 292–293, 303; and personal computers (PCs), 331; and political economics, 337–38; and production, 36, 70; and public administration, 72–73; public sector, 19–20, 29; and quality, 117–118; scientific management approach, 73; as social issue, 35; studies, 40–49; theoretical argument, 36–38; and workgroups, 331; zero hypothesis, 69. See also Economic efficiency; Efficiency; Productivity improvement; Public productivity movement
"Productivity and Excellence," 115–120
"Productivity and Information Technology: Emerging Issues and Considerations," 327–350
"Productivity Forum for Computer Technology," 211–219
Productivity improvement: and ethics, 125–130; and information technology, 346–349; and privatization, 147–149; product approach, 346; public sector, 171; strategies, 116–119. See also Productivity; Public productivity movement
Productivity in Review: "Excellence in Public Administration: Four Transferable Lessons from the Private Sector," 227–236; "Impediments to Effective Management in Local Bureaucracies: The Perceptions of Public Works Directors," 7–17; "Improving Budgetary Management and Fostering Innovation: Expenditure Control Budgeting," 237–248; "Productivity and Information Technology: Emerging Issues and Considerations," 327–350; "Public Management of Privatization," 135–152; "Total Quality Management for Public Sector Productivity Improvement," 19–32
Productivity leak, 121
Professionalization: public works directors', 10–11, 13–14; and quality concepts, 30
Program decision system (PDS), 63
Property tax, as revenue, 184
Psychological attachment, 357
Public administration: effective, 232; future, 227; and productivity, 72–73
Public health: accomplishments, 227–228; failures, 228. See also Health care administration

"Public Management of Privatization," 135–152
"Public Productivity as a Classical Movement," 33–34
Public productivity movement: future challenges, 83–84; and government by administrators, 57–59; and government by efficiency, 54–57; and government by managers, 59–64; history, 33–34, 53–83; and macroeconomics, 68–69; methodological evolution, 68–83; and microeconomics, 69–70; and private sector, 64–67; and public sector, 53–68. See also Productivity; Productivity improvement
Public sector: administrative criteria, 194–195; budgeting, 29–30; centralization/decentralization, 332; and continuous quality improvement, 103–104; diseases, 23–24; inefficiency, 282–283; and management by objectives, 269; and microeconomics, 45; overspecialization, 28–29; and pay for performance, 255; performance appraisals, 28; vs. private sector, 193, 332, 369; privatization, 135–150; productivity, 19–20, 29, 171; quality improvement, 19–20, 24–27; strategic management, 322–324; and total quality management, 21, 27–31. See also Government
Public sector employees. See Employees
Public service managers efficiency, 191. See also Managers
Public Service Training Program (New York State), 91, 93–96
Public works directors: and education, 11, 14–15; experience, 11, 14; and government type, 11, 14; and job change, 11, 15; and organizational size, 11, 14; professional orientation, 10–11, 13–14; study, 8–16; time allocation, 9, 11–13, 15–16

Q

Quality: and customers, 102–103; and Deming management method, 100–102, 105–106; improvement concepts, 24–27, 30; measures, 82–83; movement, 27; and productivity, 117–118; public sector, 19; vs. quantity, 80–82. See also Continuous quality improvement; Total quality management (TQM)
Quality function deployment (QFD), 29

R

Raffel, J. A., "Public Management of Privatization," 135–152
Rainey, H. G., "Organizational Behavior and Processes in the Public Sector," 351–353
"Raising the Bridge Using Time Series Forecasting Models," 171–188
Reding, K. M., "Health Care Policy: Access, Allocation, and Rationing," 221–226
Reed, P. N., "Decision Process Models and Organizational Context: Level and Sector Make a Difference," 397–413
"Responding to Uncertainty," 321–325
Risk management, 277
Roush, D. L.,"The Development of Behavior-Based Performance Appraisal Processes in Smaller Local Governments: Lessons from a Case Study," 267–279

S

St. Petersburg (Fla.), budget process (study), 172–184
Scientific management, 46–47, 73
Sector blurring, 190, 193, 195, 198
Self-assessment: hybrid/public/private managers', 394–395; and job satisfaction (study), 388–394
"Self-Assessments and Job Satisfaction in Public and Private Organizations," 385–396
"Serving the People or Serving for Pay: Reward Preferences Among Government, Hybrid Sector, and Business Managers," 369–383
Situational management, 3–4
Solid waste collection services, privatizing, 142
South Florida Water Management District, 331
Sovereignty attributes, 193–194
Stearns, G. K., "Performance Appraisal in Local Government: A Current Update," 281–296
Strategic decision making. See Decision making

Strategic decision process models: behavioral, 398; Garbage Can model, 399; and organizational sector, 398; research, 398–399. See also Decision making
Strategic decisions, 398
Strategic management, 322–323
Strategic planning: and data-base resources, 331; and performance measurement, 309–310
Systems analysis, 3

T

"Tailoring Performance Measurement to Fit the Organization: From Generic to Germane," 303–319
Task ambiguity, 83
Technostress, 347
Telecommuting, 334
Teleconferencing, 338
Theory X, 28
Three E's (Nagel) (effectiveness, efficiency, equity), 198
Three E's (new) (evaluation, empathy, ethics), 122, 124, 125
Three E's (traditional) (economy, efficiency, effectiveness), 121–125
Three P's (public participation, predictable rules/procedural due process, political feasibility), 198
Thurstone scale, 270–271
Time management: and managerial effectiveness, 7–8; and public sector, 8
Time series forecasting, 177, 184
Total performance measurement, 304
Total quality management (TQM): defined, 21; and Japan, 21–22; origins, 21–23; and performance appraisal, 250; public sector, 21, 27–31; system elements, 22; and U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (study), 104–113
"Total Quality Management for Public Sector Productivity Improvement," 19–32
"Total Quality Management in the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency," 99–114
Training: and Delphi technique, 298–301; and information technology, 332–333, 336–337; U.S. Office of Underground Storage Tanks, 109–110. See also Management development training
Triangulation, 304–305

U

U.S. Department of Defense, 45, 66
U.S. General Accounting Office (GAO), 45, 60, 64, 65–66
U.S. Office of Management and Budget (OMB), 60, 65–66
U.S. Office of Underground Storage Tanks (OUST), 101, 102, 104–113
U.S. Postal Service, 335

V

Value dilemmas, 122
Video display terminals (VDTs), 328, 341–343
Vision: and good management, 230–231; leadership, 2; savings and loan example, 230–231

W

Wechsler, B., "Commitment, Performance, and Productivity in Public Organizations," 355–367
Wells, J. B., "Management Development Training and Learning Styles," 415–428
Whelan, R. K., "Performance Appraisal in Local Government: A Current Update," 281–296
Whittemore, K. R., "Health Administration Education: A Challenge for the 1990s," 203–210
Wittmer, D., "Serving the People or Serving for Pay: Reward Preferences Among Government, Hybrid Sector, and Business Managers," 369–383
Work groups, 327–332
Workgroups: and computer networks, 328; defined, 328; Environmental Information System example, 330–331; and hardware/software, 329–330; and networking, 329; norms, 329; OASIS example, 331; and productivity, 331; South Florida Water Management District example, 331; and teamwork, 329; vs. work groups, 327–328

Workplace: admirable qualities, 130–131; controls, 125; ethics, 123–124, 125–126; health risks, 341–343
Wroblewski, B. J., "Productivity and Excellence," 115–120

Z

Zero-base budgeting (ZBB), 53, 58, 68–69, 173, 181, 253
Zero hypothesis, 69